LB 439

SENATOR MOSSEY: Thank you, Mr. President. Will Senator Beutler yield to a question?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Beutler, would you yield?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Sure.

SENATOR MOSSEY: Where does the State Patrol fall under this amendment now? Do they still fall under the commission or do they...where are they at in the amendment?

SENATOR BEUTLER: The...

SENATOR MOSSEY: As far as responsible for Capitol security.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yeah, they would still be responsible for Capitol security. That's...that would be an exception to the general rule that the Office Administrator of the Capitol Building would take care of the Capitol. State Patrol would.

SENATOR MOSSEY: So the State Patrol would answer to the Capitol Administrator, and then the security would then answer to the State Patrol. Is that the correct chain of command, so to speak?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Say that one more time, Senator.

SENATOR MOSSEY: Would the State Patrol answer to the Capitol Administrator, and then who...

SENATOR BEUTLER: No.

SENATOR MOSSEY: ...or is there a chain or command?

SENATOR BEUTLER: State Patrol would answer to the Governor and the State Patrol would work with the Capitol Administrator, but basically it's the State Patrol's responsibility so they would answer...

SENATOR MOSSEY: Overseeing the Capitol security.
